

Printing Company delivers election ballots for next year elections

22nd November, 2018 – ANY Security Printing Company signed a contract for delivering printing products and solutions to the 2019 European Parliamentary and to the local municipality elections.

National Election Office signed a contract with ANY Security Printing Company Plc. about delivering printing products and solutions to the election of the members of the European Parliament, to the election of local municipality members and mayors and to the election of the nationality municipality members in 2019. Total amount allocated to the contract is HUF 2.3 billion net.

ANY Security Printing Company PLC